Whether you are a weaver, know a weaver, or are interested in learning more about weaving, Whatcom Weavers Guild (WWG) is a friendly group which welcomes individuals of all skill levels and knowledge of any area of fiber arts. Guild members are fiber enthusiasts who look to share their passion and knowledge of weaving with the community.

Guild meetings are held monthly, September through June. Meetings are open to all members and visitors are welcome.

Meeting programs are developed to interest weavers and all fiber artists alike. Programs such as lectures, slide presentations and hands-on-learning activities bring members together to discover (or rediscover) interesting tricks, techniques, histories, and everything else under the sun to help stimulate a creative spark. Often, programs are geared around a specific workshop scheduled for guild members allowing for the group as a whole to learn from visiting fiber artists.

Guild membership is open to anyone interested in fiber arts and new memberships are accepted at any time. We encouraged visitors to attend Guild meetings to meet fellow fiber artists and enjoy our program presentations.
